Public Comments

Linda from Lincoln Community Hospital spoke about COVID-19 better known as the Coronavirus. She also spoke about March being National Colorectal Awareness month, the issue with insurance companies wanting you to stay away from local care, and October 10, 2020 will be the Lincoln Health Hometown Heroes Denim & Diamonds Gala. A local resident spoke about the issue of a RV camper being parked up in the North subdivision, blocking the sidewalk as well as obstructing the view.

Many residents raised concern about the roads within the Town. They would like to see something done with the roads as well as the way people speed through the Town.

Mr. Copley also approached the Board with the idea of bringing a Town Marshall into Deer Trail.

Mayor Johnson Adjourned the meeting at 7:46 p.m.
